GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Large Railroad Suit.

BALTIMORE Sept 5—The case of David Claflin and Cyrus Gatewood of New York John Parsons of New Hampshire Frank C Eddy and Benj Hall of Massachusetts and others against the South Carolina Railroad Co praying an injunction to restrain certain holders of a portion of second mortgage bonds of the road, from disposing of them and an order of the court for the appointment of a receiver of the road was begun to day Judge Bond of the U S circuit court for the district of south Carolina, sitting in chambers in Baltimore. It is charged by plaintiff that the affairs of he road have been mismanaged, that it is insolvent in default of interest on second mortgage bonds and that a portion of these bonds was illegally issued The amount involves several millions of dollars and from 20 to 30 eminent counsel represent the various parties

Lynched.

SANDUSKY Ohio, September 5—William Taylor, the colored man who is supposed to have murdered a white girl Miss McDonnell, was taken from the sheriff this morning and hung by a mob to a lamp post The authorities were utterly incapable of managing the mob or doing their duty Relics of Tweedism.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5—Wm C Rogers and J Jarvis Jones, stationers, have been arrested on suits begun by the city to recover nearly one million dollars paid during the reign of the old Tammany ring on alleged fraudulent warrants. Bail has been fixed at $25,000 The defendants have claims against the city which have been audited for about two million dollars.

Burning of the Grand Central Hotel at Omaha.

CHICAGO Sept 5—Dispatches from Omaha state that the Grand Central Hotel the finest west of the Mississippi river outside of San Francisco, caught fire mysteriously in the fifth story last night, and after burning for six hours was completely destroyed The building was a five-story brick, 132 feet square, and cost $300,000 It was opened in 1875 and had just been refitted, under new management, Ketchen Bros, of Leavenworth who leased it from the proprietors, Kountz Bros and others, they having just freed it from vexatious litigation which has been going on ever since it was erected New carpets and furniture were being put in, and in a few weeks it would have been ready for occupation The insurance was about $100 000 on the building and $5 000 on furniture The loss on the furniture is estimated at $25 000 Six firemen were seriously hurt and three men (James McNamara, Alonzo Randall and and Charles Rapp) were killed A L Harty, a fireman, was injured seriously, and Henry Lochlett fatally.

The Presidential Tour.

MADISON, WIS, Sept 4—The presidential party stopped first at Harvard, Illinois, after leaving Chicago. A large concourse of people greeted the train with cheers Agent Hurlbut introduced the president in a few felicitous remarks. The president bowed and shook hands with a few, but finding himself unable to reach all present, made a brief speech. He said:

I find this small way will not suffice, and therefore in a speech, way I give you a hearty Buckeye shake. [Applause.] Perhaps this is all I need say but I am moved to add a word of encouragement which may be acceptable After five years of hard times and embarrassment I think we may now look for a change for the better in the return to a sound currency a reduction of the public debt and with vast crops on every hand for which there is ready demand we find reasons to justify us in looking for prosperity We have touched the bottom, and are now on the ascending grade [Cheers.] It is not always safe or wise to forecast the future, but it is my belief that we have a new era of prosperity before us. My friends, with these words of hope and signs of cheer and increasing business with health added, we of the north have abundant cause for thankfulness, and I am sure, and indeed I feel it the sentiment of every heart that we may and should spare something of our bounty to our deeply afflicted and suffering brethren of the south

Gen. Hurlbut introduced Mrs Hayes who was greeted with great applause swinging of hats and handkerchiefs, which she received gratefully, when the band struck up and the train moved off

Carriages conveyed the party to the fair grounds where the bands were assembled Hon Charles G Williams, member of congress announced the presence of the president in a few well chosen words Prof A L Chapin president of Beloit college stepped forward, and in behalf of the citizens of Beloit, welcomed the president They extended a cordial greeting and warm welcome not only on account of the high office, but on account of his high character and pure life as a citizen The president spoke about 15 minutes in about the same strain as in Harvard, showing what had been accomplished in the way of reducing the people's debt and putting financial affairs of the government into good business shape He made a point on the great reduction in interest and how by taking up high interest bonds and substituting low interest bearing bonds the outlook for the future was made bright All that was now necessary was to maintain the credit they established by pursuing the course of honesty which he felt sure was the wish of every American When the president alluded to the currency of such value as to be interchangeable with coin, the audience cheered heartily. At the conclusion of his remarks, General Williams said the president had treated them to a surprise made them an admirable speech replete with wisdom and food for thought If this was the result of his fatigue, it is hoped he president would be so tired as to make such speeches at every railroad station Attorney General Devens was then introduced and spoke for about five minutes briefly about agricultural matters, during which time he paid a tribute to farmers' wives The party were next taken to the hall on the ground and had some lunch after which they drove to the train awaiting at the depot At Evansville and Oregon there were large crowds assembled, and to each the president and attorney general addressed brief remarks At Madison there was a rather ovation A committee of citizens had met the party at Beloit among them Hon E W Keys and Hon. George B Smith Mr Burchard took charge of the introduction. The president and attorney general both spoke, and alluded to the suffering in the south. At each of the stations mentioned Mrs Hayes was called for and was received with ringing cheers and pleasant remarks.

Shooting Affray

GALVESTON, TEX, Sept —A Dallas special says Ira Harrison and J W Calder receiver and director of the Dallas & Waco Railroad were rose on the street to day by Hunter and Fauser ex directors Some words were passed when every body was drawn and both men pulled their weapons and commenced firing Harrison was mortally wounded and Calder received three shots in the ex director's body.

Tennessee Republican Convention

NASHVILLE, Sept 5—In the Republican state convention the following was adopted to day reaffirms the principles of the Republican party and expresses admiration for its acts in suppressing the rebellion securing universal liberty and keeping the pledged faith of the nation to its fostering judiciously public improvements in the western states in protection alike of black and white in restoring good will despite the opposition and inveterate hate of the Democratic party and abolishing the sword as a factor in the maintenance of peace Therefore first these efforts to restore harmony at the south in administering the various executive departments so that no taint of corruption rests upon them in emancipating the primary counsels of the people from domination of office holders in its readoption of pledges of civil service reform and in its financial measures and policy the administration of President Hayes meets the confidence and hearty co operation of the people and we feel no disposition to censure that administration for the embarrassments caused by incidents and collateral difficulties which are necessarily in the situation

Second—We believe the faith of the nation is pledged to pay its debts in coin We urge persistence in the policy of speedy specie resumption because we believe it to be the policy of common honesty wise economy and prudent statesmanship We warn the people against the doctrine of unlimited and irredeemable currency issued by the United States as a pernicious delusion, because it is unconstitutional under the decisions of the supreme court of the United States because it will unsettle and betray the resources of the country into a demoralizing condition because it will bear with disastrous force upon the laboring man by putting into operation the well known law that under such a currency the necessaries of life rise first while the wages of labor rise last and then never to an equity of purchasing power, because under such a policy the price of agricultural products is fixed by the gold price of the foreign markets by which the farmer sells at a gold standard but is compelled to pay currency prices for all he buys because such a policy is practical confiscation and is the folly of communism—is dishonest and has brought disaster to all nations who have persisted in it

Third Greater economy in the state expense

Fourth—We condemn as revolutionary the effort being made by the Democratic party to usurp the presidency against the vote of the people and against the decision of the tribunal by which all electoral question in that behalf have been definitely settled

Fifth—The Democratic party under a false pretense of economy and reform has unnecessarily impaired the efficiency of the army

Sixth—Commends the present state administration

The Republican state convention renominated for associate judge of supreme court John M Berry, for clerk of the supreme court, S H Nicholls, state auditor, O P Whitcomb

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 5—Our city at present is one vast charnel house Undertakers report 96 interments for the 24 hours ending at 6 P M. Of these 93 deaths were caused by yellow fever, 76 were white, and 20 colored A visit to the county undertaker's establishment to night discovers the fact that at night fall there were about 60 more reported dead but still unburied The question of disposing of the dead is becoming serious The citizens' relief committee has employed a burial corps of 30 negroes to assist the county undertaker and his men, and it has even been suggested to burn the dead if they can not be buried more promptly, as corpses have been known to lie unburied for 48 hours, burthening the air with foul odors and be coming so revolting that people have fled the neighborhood and it is with difficulty that men can be hired to haul them to the potter's field Cook, a Howard visitor, was taken down this afternoon Mayor Flippin being sick with the fever Dr J Goodyear president of the common council, assuming as mayor A false report has gone abroad that all the banks were about to close In answer to many inquiries abroad as to what kinds of provisions were needed, Maj Wm J Willis, of the citizens' relief committee states that salt meat and flour are most needed for the destitute who are being fed by the committee The drain from the various relief organizations is very great, for in addition to attending the sick and destitute several calls for help from the adjoining towns have been promptly responded to A panic was created at Collierville in this county yesterday by the death of two citizens, supposed to have been caused by yellow fever The town has been almost depopulated The following appeal represents somewhat the condition of affairs

We ask your aid that we may be enabled to feed and clothe our destitute, furnish necessary material for the sick and dying, and give us means for the burial of our dead This appeal is only made as a last extremity and in view of the fact that another day will exhaust the means already given by a generous people Death has laid his heavy hand upon us, The destitute cry for bread and the sick for such care as can only be given by open handed generosity

The Future of Communism.

[From The Nation.]

Our greatest danger lies in the optimism which leads people to believe that communistic craze will pass away like other crazes and all will come right in the end without serious effort for it Communists have been mad enough to set fire to buildings and have been mad enough to put a few men under the ground, but they have never had the power to put a few millions of people under the ground, and they never will until they have that power Communism is not a thing to be laughed at, or reasoned with, or argued about It is to be fought, and fought with the utmost energy and determination

WASHINGTON DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

VANCOUVER W T Sept 5, 1878

The territorial Democratic convention met in Brown's hall at 10 30 A M

A temporary organization was effected by the selection of D B Hanna, of Pierce county as chairman M H Abbott, of Columbia as secretary, and G M Haller, of Clallam as assistant secretary

A committee of five on credentials reported about 24 delegates present entitled to seats and two sets of delegates from Jefferson county The report of the committee was adopted giving seats to all delegates except from Jefferson The two delegates from Jefferson ventilated in full their grievances, which were finally settled by the convention allowing H L Blanchard, editor of the Port Townsend Press to cast one vote S D Hill one vote and J A Kuhn one vote Counties unrepresented had their votes apportioned out among delegates present

The temporary officers were then elected as permanent officers of the convention

On motion of Col Nash, of Seattle, a committee on platform was appointed, which consisted of Col N B Nash, N T Caton J Hoover M H Abbott, J A Kuhn, D I Russell and Frank Clark Afternoon Session.

The platform was reported the first resolution signifying the opposition of the convention to any dismemberment of the territory declaring in favor of adopting a state government as soon as circumstances will justify

The second resolution is in favor of extension of time and completion of the N P R R and its branches, and all who oppose these ends must be considered enemies of the party.

The third resolution declares the nationality of the work of improvement of the Columbia and Snake rivers, and favors their early completion.

The fourth deprecates all attempts to antagonize labor and capital.

The fifth resolution declares the business depression of the country attributable to unwise measures of finance, and puts the responsibility therefor upon the Republican party

The last resolution proposed by the committee declares the failure of the present Indian policy, and demands a change, with the breaking up of the reservations.

The convention engaged in a lengthy discussion on the question of taxing the Northern Pacific railroad, which resulted in a peaceless resume of the history of the road and all the arguments that were ever brought up for or against it The advocates of a vigorous taxing of the road were choked off finally

The usual resolution congratulating the nation upon the suppression of federal bayonets in southern states was introduced and passed

N T Caton of Walla Walla was nominated as a candidate for delegate to congress, by acclamation In a few words he told what he would do when he reached congress

The delegates from the first judicial district announced the nomination of W G Langford, of Walla Walla, for prosecuting attorney. The second district nominated J P Judson for prosecuting attorney, and the delegates from the third district deferred their nomination to the first Monday of October to meet at Seattle on that day

The territorial central committee was announced by council districts as follows Col N B Nash, chairman, John McGilvery, Henry Myers O P Gerrish, James LaDu James D Mix S B Curtis Henry Roeder

With three cheers for the candidate for delegate the convention adjourned sine die

THE GREAT RAILWAY MONOPOLY

THE FUNDING BILL MUST BE ENFORCED—IF RESISTED BY THE COMPANIES THE NEXT STEP WILL BE FORFEITURE OF THEIR FRANCHISES BY ACT OF CONGRESS

[From the New York Times, Aug 25.]

The announcement that the Union and Central Pacific Railroad Companies are undecided as to their course as to the sinking fund law will excite no surprise No feature of their policy is more clearly defined than their disregard of all obligations due to the government and their insolent defiance of whatever authority conflicts with the selfish purposes of their managers. Equity is a thing unknown to them

It might have been thought that considerations of expediency would alone suffice to induce compliance with the requirements of the sinking fund statute The companies had done their utmost to prevent its passage Session after session they lobbied, intrigued spent money, lavishly to influence the action of congress The propositions they submitted were irreconcilable with any honest desire to protect the treasury from loss and their game in the arena was in keeping with the same dishonest purpose The house, reflecting more accurately the popular will, gave them no encouragement On the other hand the majority of the railroad committee of the senate attempted to help them, and desisted only when it became evident that public opinion would not be safe to continue trifling with the subject. The judiciary committee had concentrated in support of the measure the best intellects of the senate and the judgment of the country was pronounced in its favor Few subjects had been more exhaustively discussed, and few have received more careful treatment The law as it stands is moderate enough

Mr Jay Gould overrates his power if he imagines that the demand of the country to which the sinking fund law gives partial expression can be defied with impunity The adoption of this measure was one of the few redeeming events of last session and none more fully commended itself to the people irrespective of party After all however it was a compromise and if the companies for whose benefit congress modified terms which with perfect justice might have rendered more stringent now refuse to execute the terms present bad more decisive measures will not be long delayed The forfeiture of franchises is an extreme step which great exigency alone could justify Opposition to a just law may warrant the government in taking even this step, and the Central Pacific shareholders will have only themselves to blame if they allow their company to be dragged by the J. Goulds of the Union Pacific into the first position which is indicated as not improbable Money and cunning and impudence may accomplish great things in the speculative work in which the guiding spirit of the Union Pacific has his being but in a contest with the law making power of the government their insufficiency is too obvious to be disputed The companies which rely upon these agencies in the present instance are not popular favorites They have gone on adding to the burdens of transcontinental traffic and multiplying obstacles in the path of competition until the country is tired of their monopolizing pretensions The odium which their management has incited has nothing to do with the merits of their quarrel with the treasury but it will be found to be a powerful force at Washington should the railroad managers adopt the course which they are believed to have in contemplation

The Richmond (Va) Dispatch says that the secretary of war of the United States through Gen Marcus J Wright formerly of the confederate states army but now secretary of the United states army has tendered to the Southern Historical Society the use of the contents of many valuable official documents now in the possession of the government, and extensive collections of the confederate archives, the society extending to the secretary of the society a Richmond

A San Francisco dispatch of the 3rd says that the Consolidated Virginia and California mines New York and the East are well represented Dennis Harney an ignorant Irishman broken loose He came to California some years ago married a decent servant girl who had saved about $1 000 took her money and went to frequent on a few years and when afraid of the family expected to leave this city this afternoon to join them and care for them and his children and only made up his mind to leave when he began to be famous in the sand lots to avoid scandal!

New System of Wagon Brakes.

TRULLINGER PATENT BRAKE.

NO SHOES TO WEAR OUT THERE!

No Brake Bar used. Will hold a Wagon anywhere from Backing or going Forward.

THIS NEW BRAKE NOW BEING INTRODUCED by the inventor J C Trullinger is a combination of friction and the pulley to the hub of the wagon. It is simple and light yet has more strength and durability than any other wagon brake now in use. It is so attached to the wagon that it is out of the way of the gearing yet always reliable and at hand when required Any mechanic can see at once its utility and effective force to hold a load on a down grade or to prevent horses backing when required The Brake is made entirely of iron no wooden part being necessary, as no brake bar is used, hence it does not carry sand and is not affected by wet and muddy or icy roads.

We invite critical examination as we believe its merits can be demonstrated to any party who wants or understands a wagon brake

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 6, 1878.

ARE THEY COMMUNISTS?

That the logic of the National Greenback party, so-called, is communism, is apparent to every good observer, yet a great many of its adherents do not perceive this. There is an idea more or less prevalent that "capital" may be enlarged and encouraged to go into new enterprises by inflation of greenbacks, but this is not perhaps so much an evidence of a desire to make war on private property as an evidence that the greenback advocates do not know what they want, do not see the logical tendency and outcome of their own principles, and do not understand the nature and uses of money. There are many farmers and men of moderate property who give encouragement to the visionary notions of the greenbackers; and here and there a few wealthy men may be found who take the same view. If they knew or could be made to realize thoroughly that their platform is but incipient communism, they would leave the "National Greenback party" very soon. This class cannot wish to overthrow property. They have themselves too much at stake. Nevertheless they are supporting the very ideas that lie at the bottom of that doctrine; and if they have not sufficient comprehension of logical principles to understand this fact, they ought at least to have tact enough to discover it in the fact that the idle and thriftless classes, including all who are advocating the doctrine that government must take care of everybody, are with them in this demand for paper inflation, which is really the most insidious and thorough system of attacking private property and the rights of labor that ever was invented by the misguided intellect of man.

The communism of the greenback theory lies in this: It is deliberately proposed to issue an indefinite amount of paper currency and to "base it on the property of the nation." In other words, the government is to issue its paper notes to enormous amount and pledge the whole property of the nation for it. This is gibberish of the worst kind. The property of the country does not belong to the government. It is private property. The proposition, then, is to mortgage all the private property of the country for the payment of greenback notes, to be issued and distributed for the benefit of "the people." That is to say, it is a proposition to take away a large portion of the property of those who have accumulated it by their own industry and economy and divide it all round. If the notes are never to redeemed they will be entirely worthless. If they are to be redeemed every man who has property and every man whose capital is in his labor must be taxed for their redemption.

For surely there is too much good sense in the country to plunge it deliberately in time of peace into a scheme of paper inflation that nothing but a great war could ever excuse. Such inflation the history of every civilized country proves to be pregnant with disorganization of industry and general disaster. Every great system of inflation always falls to the ground and carries down with it everything in one common ruin. With us the result would simply be as in all countries where the experiment has been tried. What was the fate of our revolutionary currency and the French assignats? How has it been in Turkey, Hungary and Spain? The "faith of the nation" under such conditions is a myth. Repudiation follows, and the whole system falls to the ground, entailing infinite evils and misery. Yet it appears that the contest for the presidency two years hence will almost certainly be on this very question. It is desirable that it be presented as clearly as possible, so that it may not be misunderstood. The country will adhere to the right course if only it can be made to realize what unspeakable calamities always follow any gross departure from sound financial principles.

SECURITY FOR STATE FUNDS.

Investigation of the affairs of the Missouri state treasury has probed the causes of the huge defalcation nearly to the bottom. The deficit is ascertained to be about $644,000. It is a sum large enough to create considerable embarrassment even to such a state as Missouri; and serious injury to her credit is the consequence. Naturally the people do not relish the necessity of largely increased taxation which this deficit imposes upon them. Over and beyond these first obvious facts and consequences, there is a general lesson which this affair teaches, and which should impress itself upon the legislature and people of our own state. The leading cause of this Missouri defalcation was the distribution of the public funds to subserve political and private ends. It is widely believed that something similar to this has not been unknown in Oregon. Perhaps no investigation could show just how far it has heretofore been pursued, since everything of this kind is secret and very hard to follow, and comes fully to light only when a great public loss results from it, as in this instance in Missouri. But it is just as certain as any thing can be that if the legislature of Oregon do not provide some method to guard against loss of public funds and insure their safe keeping in the treasury, an untoward event will some day entail enormous loss upon the people. There should be a commission constituted by law to make a full examination of the treasury at proper times and report thereon. The bond of a treasurer is hardly ever sufficient for a very large sum, and any reverse in business or unlucky speculation on the part of those into whose hands a large amount of the public funds might be placed would give us such a result as the people of Missouri now experience.

The appetite for beer is steadily increasing. For the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1877, revenue was paid on 9,480,000 barrels. The number reported for the fiscal year which ended on the 30th June, 1878, was 9,038,000, being an increase of 457,000 barrels, or 13,710,000 gallons. But this increase is off et by a falling off in the manufacture of whisky from 57,000,000 gallons in 1877 to 50,704,000 in 1878. Recent investigations show that more money is paid for beer in almost every large city than for bread; in New York competent authorities set down the amount at not far from $30,000,000 per annum. As at present carried on the manufacture of beer is very profitable to the brewers, and there are many instances given of their sudden acquisition of immense wealth. Why don't the socialists and sons of toil make an assault on this form of diluted opulence? It all comes out of them.

An official statement published by the Union Pacific railroad company shows that the total sales of its lands from the date of its grant up to this time have yielded $6 966, 333 63. The lands have sold at an average rate of $4 50 an acre. Most of the productive lands of the grant have been disposed of. The returns for the Union Pacific form a basis on which the result of sales of Northern Pacific lands might be calculated. They indicate that at $2 50 an acre the Northern Pacific would not realize money fast enough to enable it to push its road with any degree of rapidity. If any road is to be built the company must be given control of the lands, so that money can be raised on them by mortgage in sufficient sums to push the work.

Another new secret political organization, "The Sons of Toil," is announced, with headquarters at Cincinnati. A general election is to be held in Ohio in a few weeks, and these sons of toil, like those we had in Portland last spring, are evidently organizing to get in their work on the occasion. After the election the sons of toil will find nothing more to do for a while.

CLARKE & HENDERSON.

TO THE MERCHANTS AND LONGSHOREMEN OF PORTLAND, OR.

We, the charter members who duly organized a society on Sept. 6th, 1873, for the purpose of protecting ourselves from a reduction of the present wages, met privately at a ball to transact our business, when Philip Law and James Stephenson came, without an invitation, and seemed to think that it was not right for us to organize without their being admitted as charter members. Remarks and all kinds of criticisms were made by these two men in regard to the organization. It was our mutual understanding that if we could get the stevedores in with us it would establish better for the organization. A committee waited upon Capt J. A. Brown and Capt J. G. Farrow], entending an invitation to come to the meeting. Capt. Brown said he would come and Capt. Farrowl said he would not; have anything to do with it. Under the circumstances a great deal of prejudice exists among longshoremen. As for Captain J. A. Brown being in with P. D. Lyons as the organizers of this thing, it is entirely false for them to accuse Capt Brown of such a thing. As for myself, P. D. Lyons, I will certainly say that I was acting temporary chairman of the meeting. I certainly called the meeting by mutual agreement of the members. Capt. Brown did not attend the meeting after all, owing to the disagreement between these two men and the members. Now as for calling this union a spurious one, as was published in last evening's Bee, we would certainly say in defense of ourselves that we did organize and mean to stick to it, and do it in a decent, upright kind of manner; and as long as a majority of the members were against James Stephenson and Philip Law, it certainly was their privilege to elect them for reasons best known to themselves. The union is got up for the benefit of ourselves so-called, but culine around like with a subscription list to merchants and every body else. It is certainly near time that we do something good for ourselves and have this thing of begging stopped for carrying a card by subscription. Our constitution says that those who shall become members of this organization, shall be good, sound, hearty men able to perform their duty—not to haul ships with their mouths, but muscle and good labor. As for Capt. Brown we did that if the union proceeded along in good running order, which we intended to keep it to the last, he won it willingly contribute to the support of it. Therefore we have consulted to protect ourselves with cast-iron funds from strangers to pay our sick and death bills. (Signed) COMMITTEE.

"A PIONEER AT REST."—At the east side R. R. depot a few days since we saw a flat car loaded with cut stone, marble, etc. Upon inquiry we learned it was for a monument to the memory of an old pioneer, the late Geo. La Roque, and also a stone and iron fence to inclose cemetery lot at Butteville. The monument is of Italian marble excepting bottom base, which is a large block weighing two tons of Clackamas river stone. On the die or inscription block is carved in large, well shaped letters, "George La Roque, born at Chambly, district of Montreal, C. E., April 27, 1820; died February 22, 1877." Under this or another stone is carved in relief the emblems of a pioneer—a rifle and axe—crossed and surrounded by a wreath of laurel leaves and the words, "A pioneer at rest." The spire of the monument is octagon in shape, on top of which is a nicely carved cross. The monument will stand over 13 feet high when set up, and with the substantial stone and iron fence surrounding it will make a very massive appearance in the small but neat cemetery near Butteville. The work came from the marble and stone yard of Mr. Wm. Young.

BENEFIT OF YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS.—At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Methodist church held last evening, it was unanimously voted to tender the use of their church for the illustrated lecture on Palestine by Rev. Mr. Hewes of San Francisco, next Tuesday evening. The proceeds of the lecture to be given to aid the yellow fever sufferers of the south. All the Sabbath schools of the city join in the movement. A formal statement of the superintendents will appear in our issue to-morrow.

FOREST FIRES.—By some means a fire was started yesterday or the day before in the timber above Mr. Stephens' residence on the east side of the river opposite the upper end of this city, and appearances at a late hour last night were that it would do a great deal of damage. A large lot of cord wood had been sacked on the ground, and much of it will doubtless be lost. Persons should use more caution about allowing fire to get started in the woods in these dry times.

MEETING ORGANIZED.—Last evening a meeting was held by the members of the "Long shoremen and Riggers Benevolent and Labor Union" and a permanent organization effected. Forty-two charter members enrolled their names. The following officers were chosen to serve for the ensuing term: President, Richard Harper; vice president, Philip Law; recording secretary, James Stephenson; financial secretary, Joseph Greenwood; treasurer, Richard Lemon.

SUBJECT OF PRAYER.—The subject at the noon prayer meeting at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. this day, August 6th, will be "Our distressed countrymen in the south, who need our prayers and sympathy in this their terrible affliction." It is desired that there should be a full attendance of the Christian people of Portland. Judge Bronaugh will take the lead of the meeting.

DIVINE SERVICES.—Chaplain Stubbs will preach in the school house in McMillan's Addition, East Portland, on Sabbath, Sept. 8th, at 11 o'clock A. M., and at Plymouth church, North Portland, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. All invited. Rev. G. H. Atkinson will preach at Port Gamble on Sabbath, Sept. 8th, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 in the evening.

UNITED BOARDS.—Harry Wilson, the young man who was arrested a few days ago charged with larceny from a store, had a preliminary examination yesterday in the police court, and was held to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $600. Wilson failed to furnish the bonds required and was committed to jail.

MEETINGS.—Hope Lodge, A. O. U. W., will hereafter hold their meetings in Castle Hall. Monthly meeting of the Woman's Aid Society will be held this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Woman's Home, No. 106 Columbia street.

THE YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS.

Pursuant to the call issued by Mayor Newberry, a meeting of the citizens was held last evening at the council chamber.

Mr. Wesley Jackson moved that in the absence of the mayor Hon. H. W. Corbett act as chairman.

The motion prevailed and Mr. Corbett, on taking the chair, stated very briefly the object for which the meeting had been called.

On motion, Mr. Frank T. Dodge was chosen secretary.

Considerable discussion followed in regard to the most advisable course to pursue in raising money to aid the sufferers in the south, in which Rev. John Rosenberg, R. Weeks, Dr. G. H. Chance, W. Jackson and E. C. Bronaugh participated.

Mr. Bronaugh at length moved that the chair appoint a committee of nine persons to call on our citizens and solicit means.

Mr. Corbett appointed the following gentlemen as members of such committee: Wesley Jackson, Hon. Sol. Hirsch and J. R. Foster, to canvass the lower portion of the city; E. C. Bronaugh, Dr. G. H. Chance and Joseph Buchanan, to canvass south from Washington street; and R. Weeks, Wm. Kapus and S. Blumauer, to canvass the western portion of the city.

On motion Hon. Henry Failing was chosen treasurer and W. Jackson chairman of the committee.

It was moved and carried that the chairman of the committee request the ministers of the various churches of the city to publicly announce to their congregations next Sunday that on the following Sabbath a collection will be taken up for the aid of the sufferers.

It was decided by vote that the distribution of the funds raised be left to the discretion of the committee: that it should be sent to such points in the south where the greatest need and destitution is known to exist.

After further consultation the meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman of the committee.

Members of the committee are requested to meet this (Friday) morning in the council room at 9:30 o'clock sharp, to make all necessary arrangements for a thorough canvass of the city.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

G. A. Malarkey has just received first eastern oysters. Give him a call.

D. W. Prentice & Co. have removed to the new building next to Schindler & Chadbourne's, First street.

Wm. Pfunder & Co. have many orders ahead for the Oregon Blood Purifier and Ague Cure. These medicines are meeting with large sales.

G. Cohn & Co., 230 and 232 Front street, San Francisco, are doing their business direct with customers. Observe their card in another column.

Mr. John Wilson, the old and popular merchant on Third street, has disposed of his entire business to Messrs. Olds & King. In another column will be found the announcement of these gentlemen. Messrs. Olds & King will carry on business at the old stand and ask for a liberal share of the public patronage. They promise to give satisfaction to all who call. They have a large and splendid stock of goods and invite the public generally and the ladies in particular to give them an early call.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. P. Galbraith, M. P. P. for the district of Kootenai, British Columbia, arrived in town yesterday from Victoria, en route for his home amongst his constituents.

Hon. W. S. Bunkley, who will be remembered by old citizens as a former resident of Portland, and student at the Portland academy twenty years ago, is now in the city. At present he is county judge of San Joaquin county, California, a very important position. The judge bears his honors with grace, and his appearance shows that time has dealt kindly with him. We extend to him the freedom of the city.

RAILROAD DISASTER AVERTED.

NARROW ESCAPE OF THE MAIL TRAIN—A LURKING BRIDGE, TIMELY DISCOVERED—HEROIC ACT OF FRANK SPRAGUE. COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

The north bound train yesterday afternoon narrowly escaped meeting with a frightful disaster while coming down the road between Clackamas bridge and Marshfield. Between these points named is a long trestle bridge which spans a gulch about 40 feet deep. By some means this bridge caught fire early in the afternoon. The fire had been burning about an hour, when a young man named Frank Sprague came along down the track. Sprague had started to walk from the Clackamas bridge to Marshfield, and in that way fortunately discovered the fire. A house stood near the bridge where two women were living. They saw the fire, but were too timid to walk out on the trestle and attempt to put it out. Young Sprague took in the situation at a glance. Knowing that the mail train would come along in about an hour, he saw that not a moment was to be lost. The fire had burned in twain twelve ties on one side of the track, and one of the "stringers" was burned nearly off. Sprague resolved to put out the fire and thus save the bridge and stop the train in time. He borrowed a small pail at the house and began to work in earnest. A small stream ran along the gulch, and from this little brook Sprague obtained a supply of water. It was a long way down to the stream and the bank was steep and rough; the pail would not hold more than two or three gallons, and the fire was burning fiercely. But the heroic young fellow overcame all these difficulties. Before he succeeded in putting out the fire he had to make a great many trips down to the bottom of the gulch. He knew that it was about train time when the fire was extinguished and he turned his attention in that direction resolved to "flag it" and thus avert a dreadful disaster. Where could he get a flag to display, was the next question. The distant rumble of the now rapidly approaching train roused Sprague to a realizing sense that something must be done, and quickly at that. Suddenly it occurred to him that he could borrow some red piece of cloth at the house. He ran there, but the woman had nothing but a little girl's cloak, which, fortunately was lined with red flannel. It was just the thing. Sprague picked it up, and running to the track, saw the train coming down at full speed, the engineer, conductor and passengers never dreaming of the danger so near ahead. Sprague waved the cloak, which caused the engineer to give several vigorous toots. Down went the brakes and the train was brought to a halt just at the edge of the trestle. The feeling experienced by the officers of the train and the passengers can better be imagined than described when the disabled condition of the bridge was known. Mr. DeClark, the road master, luckily was on board the train, who immediately began to make the necessary repairs. He was assisted by a number of persons, and inside of an hour the track was in a condition for the train to pass over in safety. Meantime the freight train, which was only a short distance behind, came up and was flagged in time.

The officers on the train and the passengers felt such a deep sense of gratitude for the heroic services rendered by young Sprague, that a considerable sum of money was raised among the passengers in a few minutes, which was presented him. However, the young man declined to accept a cent for the services he had rendered. As he refused to take the money offered him, we understand it will be expended in the purchase of a handsome gold badge, which will be fittingly inscribed—giving his name and the noble service he rendered in saving human life. The railroad company will no doubt reward in a fitting and substantial manner such an act of heroism. Too high praise can not be accorded young Sprague, for had he not extinguished the fire and stopped the train a fearful disaster would evidently have resulted. The locomotive would have gone off the instant it struck the rail beneath which the ties were burned and the cars would have followed, and all plunged in a heap to the bottom of the gulch.

At a meeting of the passengers the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to Frank Sprague, of Clackamas, for his brave action in putting out alone and unaided the fire which he discovered on the bridge between Clackamas river and Marshfield, flagging the train, thereby no doubt saving the lives of many passengers:

BISHOP SCOTT GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Less than a year ago the fine building in the northwestern part of the city, occupied by Bishop Scott Grammar school, was destroyed by fire. On the 5th of June last the corner stone of a new building was laid and to day it stands on the site of its predecessor, a thing of beauty in itself and a monument of honor to the generous persons who contributed the money by which it was built. Yesterday afternoon a representative of THE OREGONIAN, in company with a party of gentlemen, and by invitation of Bishop Morris, visited the building and inspected it from basement to garret. It is not quite completed at present for want of money, and is furnished in the most economical plan consistent with comfort and the proper performance of the purpose for which it was built. The door used now as the main entrance is on the north side of the building, and opens into a broad hall connecting with the chapel on the left, library and head master's office and matron's room, and a suite of handsome rooms for the use of the head-master's family on the right. The chapel, which is on this floor is a large, airy room with windows, for the present of ordinary glass, opening on the east and north. Its walls and ceilings are wood finished, after a plan novel and handsome. It consists of alternate panels of clear cedar and spruce smoothly dressed and varnished, showing the natural tints of the woods, which harmonize in beautiful effect. Planes of this panelling are artistically arranged to give variety, and the room is cheerful and handsome. The library and office and matron's room on this floor are furnished neatly and plainly, and the family rooms are unoccupied, the present head master, Professor Hill, being a "single gentleman." The main school room, with its tributary recitation rooms, are on the floor above, are large and high, and have an abundance of air and light—physical necessities too often lacking in school rooms. The south half of the building is divided into chambers which at present are not used. The students' sleeping rooms, bath room, etc., are in the third story. Each boy has a room, small, plain and plainly furnished, but comfortable, to himself. The kitchen, dining room, pantries, etc., all roomy and pleasant, are in the basement. In the eastern part of the basement is a large room which will be floored and furnished as a play room for the students. This will afford the boys attitude for sport during the dull rainy season. About fifty feet west of the main building a tower has been built, and will contain water tanks in the upper stories and form a wooshed hollow. It will be connected with the main building by a bridge and will afford convenience for escape in case of fire. An old building to be used as a laundry and Chinese quarters, has been joined to the tower, and when the repairs now in progress upon it are completed, will form a handsome wing. The gymnasium, in which the fellows were actively exercising, will be repaired and refurnished.

Of the excellences of this institution we have often spoken. Of its success, there can be no doubt. Prof. Hill, the head master, is a scholarly and pleasant gentleman, of a natural teaching and thoroughly fair character experience with the teaching art. The matron is Mrs. Campbell, late of Oregon City, an estimable lady. The school under the general management of Bishop Morris, to whom much credit is due, will not be surpassed for its zeal and industry in planning and managing an educational institution successfully furnished.

THE DRUG TRADE.

HODGE, DAVIS & CO., THE LEADING HOUSE IN THE BUSINESS OF THE NORTHWEST COAST—SURPASSING IN THE EXTENT OF ITS STOCK THE WHOLESALE ESTABLISHMENTS OF SAN FRANCISCO—THEIR NEW QUARTERS, TRADE RELATIONS, ETC.

It has been a well established and well and widely known fact that for some years the houses of Hodge, Calef & Co., Hodge, Snell & Co. and Smith & Davis and T. A. Davis & Co., all of which were really but two firms, were the foremost houses in the drug business north of San Francisco, and in the appointments of their respective places of business, their extensive acquaintance and entire reliability in the trade were second to none on the Pacific coast. Accordingly, when it was announced some months ago that Hodge, Snell & Co. and T. A. Davis & Co. had combined their stocks, the public was well prepared to expect one of the largest establishments of the kind ever opened in Portland. As we expect to show further on in this article, this firm is ready to fulfil all the expectations of the public and the trade.

Shortly after the combination of the two firms under the style of HODGE, DAVIS & CO.

The erection of the large fire proof building on the site of the old Cosmopolitan hotel, at the corner of Stark and Front streets, for their occupancy was commenced and carried on with dispatch to completion. The building itself, which is a two story brick, 50x160 feet, with stone foundation and a commodious well lighted and well ventilated cellar, has been heretofore described in our columns and, suffice it to say here, that it is better adapted to the purpose had in view in its construction than almost any other building in our city. While it might not be called the finest or most elegant in its finish it is doubtless one of the most substantial and best business structures among the many notable ones which adorn the commercial emporium of the northwest coast.

The firm has just finished the task of moving their immense stock, and are now fairly established in their new quarters, which are well worthy public inspection as demonstrating the growth of this branch of the commerce of this country. The system with which the goods are arranged for convenience in inspection and selection by their customers is worthy of notice and cannot fail to attract attention from those who patronize the house. Immediately on the right of the entrance on Front street is the

CHEMICAL DEPARTMENT,

Where the goods of this character are displayed in profusion, in small and large packages, so that customers can examine them with the utmost convenience and completeness. The stock in this department is quite full and embraces everything that is required by the trade, the enumeration of even a small portion of which would fill more space than is afforded us here. Dealers in these articles of extensive use will find the most admirable opportunity afforded for examining and soliciting.

THE PROPRIETARY AND PATENT MEDICINE

Department is in the rear on the right, and is so arranged that access to all the goods in it is most easy. The stock here is also very varied and extensive, especially of those medicines, the value of which as remedies for many of the ills to which flesh is heir, has been fully established, the firm being agents for all the standard preparations in this line. Crossing to the left hand side in the rear, we come to

THE GLASS DEPARTMENT,

In which the stock is now the largest and most complete ever seen in Oregon, embracing, as it does, all the sizes used in the admission of light or ornamentation of buildings, from 8x10 to 40x72 inches, 10, 21 and 26 oz. and plate. The trade of the firm in this article is very large and they have arrangements with manufacturers by which the growing demands of this country can be exactly met and prices more advantageous to buyers than can be obtained elsewhere on the coast. Everything in this department is also arranged for easy access to and convenient examination. On the left of the main entrance are the

PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, ETC.,

Which embrace a very large proportion of the immense stock of goods in the firm's establishment. In face the display in this line, though quite sufficient to fill a good sized store, is comprised of samples only of what they have on the large upper floor and the cellar below by the hundreds of tons. The varied assortment of paints and varnishes is complete and the stock is kept constantly full, so that no buyer can possibly need or call for any article or any particular quality or brand that they are not able to furnish in any required quantity from a gallon to a ton or more. They have the celebrated Averill and Rubber prepared paints, which have attained to such an immense sale throughout the world, and which deserve the praise be stowed upon them because of their acknowledged excellence. These paints are put up in packages of all sizes and in the most convenient forms for use. Both brands are considered No. 1, and they are notorious rivals for public favor. Other paints and tub paints are also kept in great assortment

GOODS IN BULK.

The above departments as described are arranged principally for the exhibition of samples, the goods being stored principally in the central part of the store from front to rear; and though we find here ship loads of commodities of every description found in such an establishment, all are most readily accessible and conveniently arranged for handling. The idea of the members of the firm is to carry such a stock of goods in their line, and to afford such opportunities to dealers to procure every article demanded by the trade of the North Pacific coast as will make it apparent that buying stocks in San Francisco, or purchasing from agents or drummers of San Francisco houses, is unnecessary and unwise as a piece of business economy. Hodge, Davis & Co. have now such business relations as enable them to make it to the advantage of dealers throughout Oregon and Washington and Idaho territories to buy all their supplies here. The stock kept is such that purchases may be made of just such goods and in just such quantities as are needed, without the risk of having to take more than is necessary or of a quality that is not wanted when buying of drummers of houses abroad. The enterprise of Messrs. H. D. & Co., besides being worthy of patronage as a home establishment, deserves well of the retail drug trade of the country and city, as meeting a want which has not heretofore been near so fully supplied.

THE OFFICE,

Embracing counting room, business and private office, is situated in the center of the first floor, south side, and is finely furnished, well lighted and altogether the largest, most convenient in arrangement and complete in appointments in the city. Opposite the offices on the north side is the grand stairway leading to the SECOND FLOOR.

This stairway is quite elaborately constructed, the newel posts and balusters being elegantly carved and ornamented. On the second floor is found further displays of the large stock, such as fancy goods, surgical instruments, trusses, druggists' scales and glassware, elixirs, extracts and nostrums' goods. A special department, enclosed in glass frame work, is set apart for the large stock of fancy goods, surgical instruments and such other articles as require to be kept free from dust. The firm carry but a limited stock of fancy goods of the cheaper class, but they have a full line of the goods of this character, and offer them to the trade at moderate prices for the quality. Their assortment of druggists' scales and glass ware is larger and more complete than was ever before brought to this market, and well merits the attention of this trade.

An apartment on this floor is also to be fitted up as a laboratory, which when finished will add to the general completeness of the establishment.

The third department on the first floor is also complete in its appointments and furnished with everything necessary to the large business of the firm as regards material, and shipping goods.

The cellar, which is stored with quantities of oils of every kind and other goods in bulk, is the most spacious and well lighted in the city.

MEMBERS OF THE FIRM.

The firm of Hodge, Davis & Co. consists of Charles Hodge, T. A. Davis, Geo. W. Snell and F. K. Arnold, all well known to the business public as thoroughly reliable, accommodating gentlemen, of their ability we are sure, will find that every article sold in their line will be just of the character which they represent it. Their design is to carry on a wholesale business for the future, and the basis upon which they are established indicates a large increase of their already flourishing trade.

Bishop Scott Grammar School.

A Boarding & Day School for Boys.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

Under the Supervision of BISHOP MORRIS.

THIS SCHOOL WILL OPEN IN THE COMMODIOUS and beautiful new building on TOWER DAY, Sept. 3d, under the Headmastership of PROF. JOSEPH W. HILL, an A. M. of Yale College. There will be a full corps of faithful and experienced assistants, among them Mr. Louis Miner, already favorably known to the patrons of the School.

Among the very satisfactory testimonials that Bishop Morris has received concerning Prof. Hill, are the following:

YALE COLLEGE, April 26, 1878.

This may certify that Mr. Joseph W. Hill has had ample experience in teaching, is mature in years, and is well fitted to take charge of a High school. He is a man of excellent character, and cannot fail to give satisfaction as a teacher.

(Signed) N. PORTER, Pres.

THE SELLECK SCHOOL, NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 16, 1878.

I have long known Mr. Joseph W. Hill. He was my pupil for years and has since taught for me. To his ability and worth I unhesitatingly testify. He is an earnest student and in my judgment possesses rare qualifications for the profession of teaching. I commend him very cordially at all thoroughly.

(Signed) REV. C. M. SELLECK, Principal.

To the Cigar and Tobacco Trade in Oregon and Washington Territory:

In order to sell our Cigars and Tobacco as cheap as possible, we have come to the conclusion henceforth not to send an agent to Oregon and Washington Territory to solicit orders or to make collections. We are hereby enabled to save large expenses, and as a consequence, will sell our Cigars and Tobacco, of corresponding qualities, cheaper than any other house in this city.

Thanking you for the kind patronage with which you have favored us heretofore, we shall be pleased to receive henceforth your valued orders and remittances direct. Respectfully,

G. COHN & CO.,

230 and 232 Front st., San Francisco.

P. A. M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Secret Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skilful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, notonly on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.

Office, 63 First street, over McCormick's Franklin Bookstore.

BEAUTY:

OR, THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the influence of an American climate, possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty a pure and clear complexion. What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish. It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It corrects all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner. It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power. It drives away all evidence of fatigue and excitement. It makes the plainest face beautiful. It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear gracefully rotund and plump. It makes a matron of sixty look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and, while it is harmless as water, it is so life-like in its effect that the closest observer cannot detect its use. Ladies who want to make themselves attract, can make an absolute certainty of it by using FAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

Schillinger's Patent

FIRE, WATER AND FROST PROOF

ARTIFICIAL STONE!

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPRIETOR OF THIS valuable patent on the Pacific Coast is now prepared to execute all orders for Laying Sidewalks, Garden Walks, Carriage Drives, Corridors, Office Floors, Cellar Floors, Stable Floors, Kitchen Floors, etc. The stone is laid in squares, ovals, rounds, diamonds or any other requisite shape, to conform to any form of surface, level, curved or depressed. It is also made in any color or variety of colors, and is as durable and ornamental as marble; is perfectly fire, water and frost proof while nothing is more economical.

Reference is confidently made by the undersigned to the work done several years ago on the elegant premises of W. C. Talbot, Esq., 654 Jackson st., and more recently on the magnificent premises of S. Hagin, Esq., Taylor street, San Francisco, from whom we have testimonials of satisfaction; also the work lately done in this city for R. Green, Esq., Judge Harmon, and Mr. Grayson, on Jackson street, A. K. P. Harmon and W. S. Miller, Esqs., Webster street, and Mr. Ward on Lake street.

Orders may be left at the office of DILG BROS. Front street two doors south of Oak.

CHAS. B. DUHRKOOP,

Proprietor, Oregon and Nevada.

N. B.—The public are cautioned against all parties infringing on this patent, the advertiser being the only person or the Pacific Coast permitted to use the process. au20d1m
